Table of Contents

Preface 7

John Chapman | Bisserka Gaydarska
»The Mirror Spied Upon Us« (Borges). The Agency of Fragments and Whole Objects in Archaeology and How to Study Them in the Landscape 9

Bronze Age Hoards and Greek Sanctuaries: The Example of Olympia

Oliver Pilz
Sacrificial and Dedicatory Practice in Early Olympia 29

Holger Baitinger
»Die Zerstörung der älteren Bronzeweihgeschenke und die Zersplitterung der Fragmente hat schon in recht früher Zeit begonnen«. Fragmented Bronze Objects in Greek Sanctuaries and in European Scrap Hoards 47

Azzurra Scarci | Gerhard Stawinoga
Fragmentation as Ritual Practice? New Insights from the Sanctuary of Olympia 63

Fragmentation and Use-Wear Analysis

Matthew G. Knight
Use and Abuse in Later Bronze Age Metalwork Hoards from Britain 89

János Gábor Tarbay
Variations on Use and Fragmentation »in the Late Bronze Age« 109

Botond Rezi
Fragmentation Patterns in the Eastern Carpathian Basin during the Bronze Age 145

Jan-Martin Skolaut
Fragmentation Patterns and the Late Bronze Age Deposition at Ingolstadt-Dünzlau 183

Christoph Huth
Patterns of Destruction among Late Bronze Age Metalwork Depositions in Central and North-Western Europe 201

Fragmentation and Metrology

Giancarlo Lago
Breaking Metals. Quantification and Interpretation of Bronze Fragmentation in Bronze Age Italy and Europe 221

Nicola Ialongo
The Banality of Fragments. Metal Fragmentation through the Ages and the »European Exception« 235

Fragmentation and Rituals

Estelle Gauthier | Jean-François Piningre
Not so Different! A Comparative Study of Fragmentation in Bronze Age Hoards in the Region of Salins-les-Bains 251